PRICE LIST FOR SERVICES PROVIDED BY ILIRIKA D.D. LJUBLJANA

In addition to the fees charged by ILIRIKA d.d. Ljubljana, Slovenska cesta 54A, 1000 Ljubljana (hereinafter: ILIRIKA) listed in this Price List, additional direct costs related to trading via a financial instruments account shall also be charged for the provision of services, in the amount and manner as charged to ILIRIKA by other institutions and financial intermediaries in connection with the provision of individual services. These costs relate in particular, but not exclusively, to: direct costs of security exchanges, executing partners, global and local depositories/custodians and similar (hereinafter: direct costs). Direct costs are subject to the tariffs of other institutions and financial intermediaries and vary independently of ILIRIKA. An overview of the currently applicable direct costs is provided in Annex 1 to this Price List. ILIRIKA reserves the right to change the direct costs in Annex 1 at any time without prior notice in the event of a change in direct costs and to take them into account and charge them at the same rate as financial institutions, financial intermediaries and other institutions charge ILIRIKA in connection with the provision of services on behalf of the client.

1. ILIRIKA'S FEE FOR OPENING A FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT ACCOUNT

The basis for calculating ILIRIKA's fees and KDD's direct costs for maintaining financial instrument holdings at KDD is the average monthly value of the client's financial instruments, as calculated by KDD for the calendar month in accordance with its current methodology for the valuation of financial instruments. The fee is charged on a quarterly basis.

4.2. Foreign financial instruments

	TRADING PACKAGE	BUSINESS PACKAGE
Fee for maintaining foreign financial instrument holdings	0,0070% of the average monthly value of the portfolio

The basis for calculating ILIRIKA's fees and the direct costs of global/local custodians or sub-custodians for maintaining foreign financial instruments is the average monthly value of the client's foreign financial instruments, as calculated for the calendar month by the global/local custodian or sub-custodian in accordance with its current methodology for the valuation of financial instruments. The fee is charged on a quarterly basis.

If the total amount of fees from point 4 of this price list does not exceed 10,00 EUR in total, the fee shall not be charged in the current quarter, but the amount of uncharged fees shall be charged in the quarter in which the sum of uncharged fees for an individual account exceeds 10,00 EUR, but no later than after the end of the last quarter of the current year or upon termination of the business relationship, regardless of the amount of the uncharged fee.

The minimum fee for maintaining securities balances at KDD and financial instruments on foreign markets shall be charged to a client at the end of each billing period (quarter) instead of the basic fee if, in that billing period (quarter), the basic fee does not reach the amount of the minimum fee.

10. ASSET MANAGEMENT

The terms and conditions of asset management services (minimum deposit amount, management fee, profit sharing, etc.) are specified in detail in each individual Agreement concluded between the client and ILIRIKA. The terms and conditions of service may differ depending on the specific type of asset management.

SELECTED PRODUCT	MANAGEMENT FEE	PROFIT SHARING	MINIMUM DEPOSIT
IUP	1,40% per annum	85:15 in favor of the client	50.000 EUR
Modro Varcevanje	1,25% per annum	100:0 in favor of the client	50 EUR / month

Brokerage fees for asset management are charged at 0,12% of the transaction value for each purchase or sale. When trading on foreign markets, fees are charged according to the price list. In cases of identical orders from multiple clients executed within the same day, total costs (bank and other costs) are divided among clients based on the transaction value.

ILIRIKA charges the following fees for asset management services:

- Management fee, which is charged as a lump sum based on the indicative portfolio value.
- Profit-sharing fee as a percentage of the generated profit. If the client's portfolio incurs a loss, the company is not entitled to a profit-sharing fee until the portfolio value exceeds the last recorded highest value of the client's portfolio. Regardless of a loss, in such cases the company will charge the client a management fee as described in the first indent of this paragraph.
- Fee for maintaining financial instrument holdings in accordance with point 4 of this Price List.
- Brokerage fees based on the transaction value of individual purchase or sale transactions.

The management fee and profit-sharing fee are calculated quarterly (4x per year) based on the indicative portfolio value. The fees specified in the first two indents do not include VAT, which is calculated separately and paid by the client.

NOTICE:

ILIRIKA and the client may, via a recorded telephone line or in writing, also agree on a different commissions or fee than those specified in this Price List. Likewise, ILIRIKA and the client may agree on a fee for services not defined in this Price List. ILIRIKA reserves the right to change the price list without prior notice. The currently valid Price List is available to clients for review at any visible and accessible location in every office where ILIRIKA conducts its business, as well as on the company's website www.ilirika.si. The Price List and Annex 1 to the Price List must be read as a whole. All services listed in this Price List, except where expressly stated otherwise, are exempt from value-added tax (VAT) under the Value Added Tax Act. The fee rates charged by foreign intermediaries are for information purposes only and represent the latest values known to ILIRIKA, therefore changes to those rates are possible, either upwards or downwards from those presented for information purposes. Fees and costs on foreign markets are determined according to the currently applicable price lists of the exchanges and financial institutions involved in a given transaction. ILIRIKA is entitled to reimbursement of any taxes, duties, or other charges it pays on the client's behalf. For conversions of amounts not denominated in EUR, the European Central Bank (ECB) reference exchange rate from the previous business day is used (or, for currencies for which the ECB does not publish reference exchange rates, the exchange rate of the Bank of Slovenia). If ILIRIKA assesses that a transfer of clients' financial instruments is sensible and in the interest of its clients, it may transfer the brokerage firm's clients' financial instruments to another custodian. If the annual consumer price inflation rate exceeds 5%, as determined by the Statistical Office of the Republic of Slovenia, the absolute amounts in the Price List may be increased by the rate of inflation. If ILIRIKA decides to raise prices, it will amend the Price List, which will also apply to agreements concluded before the change takes effect. In the case of special promotional offers, ILIRIKA reserves the right to deviate from the fees in this Price List. This Price List takes effect on January 12th 2026.
